Superintendent's Highlights

The district continues its efforts to improve instruction while impacting tests scores in a positive way. Although scores show very good increases this district will work to the best of its ability to continue that level of improvement in order to achieve the requirements of the NCLB and the State of Idaho. Behavior management and discipline have improved greatly and widely across the district and work will continue to improve in this area as well. Staff turnover is very limited at this juncture as programs across the district are settling into a rhythm and pattern that professional staff is enjoying. Technology advancements continue to be on a growth path district wide.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals
